

Question on Shops.

Posted by shadow343179 - 16 Feb 2013 03:39

Question.

Max's shop is unclaimed, Hasnt been removed.

Wyatt took enderchests and some gold blocks, I told him to put em back so he did.

He logged on today to see that they were gone.

Nuckyi says that you are allowed to take from Unclaimed-Shops

I figured, You cant claim other's shops, You cant grief or raid them either.

Domi got banned for this, Yet now its allowed?

Just wanting an answer on this to clarify.

Taking item from unclaimed shops is fine. He hasn't been on, his faction automatically disbanded, so the land is fine to take valuable items from.

Claiming over someones shop isn't allowed because the shops world is a trading zone only, so didn't want to have the mess of people trying to take over other peoples' shops.

The reason Domi got banned is because he completely destroyed the shop, which is griefing. He was only banned for a week though.
