

Stuff I've Got to Say

So some of you might remember me. I was just typing twitch.com in, so I hit tw and then enter, and came back here. Anyway, I was looking around at the sight again, and I realized that about 75% of the chat is me complaining about being banned. I'm very sorry that I was like that, and I'm pretty sure I've matured past that stage in the last few months. I am in NO WAY saying you should let me back on the server (when I get some money I'm buying an alt anyway). I just wanted to say I'm sorry for whining, and I'm sorry for cheating and getting all those diamonds to ruin others' playing experiences...

By the way, I don't know if anyone else in this community would be interested, but I think you should add a roleplaying forum. I think it would be a great addition to the sight, especially for those who can't play games in the community, like myself.
