i already said that i agree with the ban. it's just that we did say that he'd get unbanned if he'd change his skin. the thing is do we really want to say things and do the opposite ?

well, lets put it this way, I didn't see but other mods did, I believe people know pretty well when its an iron cross or a swastika, and if it is, its a perm. Period, adding heil hitler is not really good to it.

Sooo, if he does come with a different skin, let him be, if he doesn't. Perm.

This is Tunes reply a while ago, and if im not mistaken, Tunes is in charge of the MC Servers, and the guy changed the skin, so instead of just saying that your gonna unban him, do it aswell.
