Well, i tped LIGETRIOT43 to my skyblock to show him around. then i found out he had set his home at my skyblock. I then made a nice pit for him to fall into. I then left for about 5 min came back on and all my stuff was gone in my chests. And i saw him, and he saw me and logged off. Then some guy named river169 came on and started to insult me. I think it was LIGETRIOT43's other account. Anyways he knows he broke the rules and he says i cant do anything about it. so i was just hoping you can get my stuff back and remove his sethome from my skyblock before he grieves it. He stole a lot of value able this thati hope you can recover

thank you
