I'm levi, I play on your server from time to time, I'm at the point where I'd like to make a farm annnd I can't place water. So I'm registering, I'm 18, mostly keep to myself (unless someone needs help) and I'm only really on to pass the time and I left my old mcmmo server because the mods were immature and liked taking stuff out of peoples inventory because they could. I also used to play a lot of CS:S and currently play quite a bit of Dota and minecraft

Well, Welcome to TWK, enjoy your stay.

Also we select the most mature people we find to be our Staff so you will most likely enjoy their company. But we also like our moderators for their sense of humor so they are always there to have a laugh with but are serious when necessary.

Edit: We too used to play CS:S alot (this community used to be based around CS:S).
