Hey i belive i have been griefed by the scrub faction guys, if u will run a block check for me, head to my castle and head to the top of the 4 towers, u will see doors cased in stone brick, that all WAS closed in glass block also as some of you may rember, also another hickup on my main floor. if u see in the corners on the main floor there are trap doors, if u go down 1 of them (not shure how to point out 1 exact 1) a piece of obsidian has been knocked out and lava from my floor is flowing everywhere in the tower, thanks guys ill talk to you soon, Wicked

i grab a couple of screen shots and yes the obsidian was broken by the scrub faction so lava is flowing down this pathway and there was glowstone broken on the bottom of the castle.

Maxmekker found their party name and managed to join, they all left except EBK_Wicked_One (because he was offline and had no idea he was in the party with Max) and Max TP'd to Wicked when he logged in.
