All these links makes me wonder if USA really had something to do with this. There are loads of other videos in the net, describing this, mostly, turned against the USA.

But on the other hand, maybe this is what the responsible want us to think, that it actually was the USA that did this.

What do you think?

yeah the USA did do 9/11

I wrote an English essay on it in third year and my english teacher said that the subject was a load of sensationalist rubbish lol

But yeah read "Dude, Where's my country?" by Michael Moore and also watch his film "Fahrenheit 9/11" - very entertaining and interesting.

The South Park episode that takes the complete piss out of both sides of the argument's quite funny too

lol

I bet that Bush did it.

Really bad that it happen. And what it lead to....

Its a shame:(
