This Game is called the Mushroom Game.

Your mission is to get the mushroom.

You must write about how you got the mushroom, and how you are going to protect the mushroom from other players.

No destroying the mushroom.

You mush always include 'I have the mushroom.' in your post.

I'll start:

I have the mushroom.

I have put a force field around the mushroom.

After seducing Pooky's gran i find where Chi ken was heading. It doesn't take me long to spot his funny walk and i proceed to retrieve the mushroom which is now covered in 3 shades of excrement.

I have the mushroom.

I hide the mushroom in an indestructible safe which can only be opened by a 126 digit code which randomizes every 3 seconds. The volume of the safe is EXACTLY that of the mushroom.

(Sadly this failed after my post as I didnt mean a aircraft but another dimension, but anyway)

I opened the unlocked safe and take the mushroom, glad that you forgot to lock the lock.

I have the mushroom!

By now the mushroom have mutated into a infected mushroom. I had to lock it up in the basement. All you see in the dark is its one eye, blinking at you, begging for release..

i hold a mirror in front of me. the eye starts turning to stone. before it reaches the rest of the mushroom i throw away the mirror and grab the mushroom (wearing rubber gloves of course)

i have the mushroom!

i send it through a matter transmitting machine, which travels to random co-ordinates every five minutes.

I was only pretending that that mushroom was THE mushroom, when actually I have the real one, excrement free.

I have the real mushroom!

I then hide it in a special safe with which you have to get 300 points in every level on the hardest mode in Super Crate Box to open.
